Brahmasri Samavedam Shanmukha Sarma Garu is renowned scholar on Vedas, Upanishads, Puranas and Itihasas; a poet, an author and a philosopher. He is instrumental for bringing about a cultural and spiritual renaissance among Indians around the world. His extraordinary ability of presenting sophisticated spiritual content to common audience of different backgrounds with day to day examples coupled with subtle humor provides an insight into practice of Sanatana Dharma (Eternal Truth). He is the founder of Rushipeetham a charitable trust committed to spread the message of eternal values, commemorate and felicitate great scholars contributed to Arsha Dharma and arts such as music and dance. Other activities of the trust include protection of cows, medical camps and providing scholarships. He received several honors and awards some of which include Bharathi Tyagaraja Samman, Samanvaya Saraswathi, Vedanta Vidyanidhi and Vagdevi Varaputra. Sri Sarma Garu was recently awarded with Vachaspathi (Dr. Lit) by Rastriya Samskrutha Vidyapeetham (Tirupathi).
